A Boston Opinion on Hoff's Malt Extract. A BOSTON OPINION ON HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT.

HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT is a new diesetic and healing remedy, highly recommended by le ding European physicans for complaints of the chest and stomach, dyspepsis, obtains to complaints of the chest and stomach, dyspepsis, obtains to complaints of the chest and stomach, dyspepsis, obtains to complaint of the case in this country, and especially in this city, steadily increases, and thus a remarkassic fact that no one who has such the treases, and thus a remarkassic fact that no one who has such the Malt Fritzech has ever made a single complaint of it while all are eath shackle in hispraise. A powerful argument in its favor—one that carries weight ever where—is that the so e as not for America are Mesers. Tarrant & Co., of New-York, who are very carried who lending the smethod of their name to any preparation. Every senuine bottle bears the table of Misses.

Tarrant & Co. Mesers, S. Pierce & Co. sell the Malt Extract in this city.—[Boston Saturdy Evening dazerto.

XAVER SCHARWENKA, of Borlin, writes. "These Mason & Hamilin Organs are the wost excellent Instruments that I know of. They are expadie of giving the finest tone ing, and no other instrument so encaptures the player and similar opinions have been expressed by many other celebrated musicians. Dr. FRANZ LISZT bas chara them as "matchless." "nurivalled;" THEODORE THOMAS propounces them "the best instruments of the class made either in this country or Europe;" ITALO CAMPANINI writes. They excel all similar instruments of wideh I have any knowledge. But you have better proof of my opinion of your Organs than even this exp.ession, in the fact that I have just purchased one to take with me to Traly." J. H. MAPLESON and LUIGI ARDITI. manager and conductor of Her Majesty's Italian Opera Company, say. "We have bever seen an organ of this description which equaled your List Organ in power, brilliancy and smoothness of tone,"
